Impellam's North American Executives Recognized as Top 100 Influential Leaders of the Staffing and Workforce Solutions Industry

CEO David W. Barfield and CIO Mike Bixler Named to SIA 100

SOUTHFIELD, MICHIGAN – March 13, 2017 – Both Impellam's North American Chief Executive Officer David W. Barfield and Chief Information Officer and Managing Director Mike Bixler have been named to the "Staffing 100," an annual compilation of the "most influential people in the staffing industry" by Staffing Industry Analysts (SIA).

As the leading global advisor on staffing and workforce solutions, SIA selects individuals for the list who are viewed by their peers as leaders in the workforce solutions industry. Selection is based on financial success as well as pushing the boundaries of excellence, innovating and inspiring others to transform traditional workforce models to drive higher productivity and performance.

Barfield has been named to the Staffing 100 every year since its inception in 2011. He has more than 20 years of experience in the contingent labor management industry and served as CEO of Bartech Group since 2012. After Bartech joined Impellam Group in 2015, Barfield became CEO of Impellam's North American portfolio of Managed Services and Specialist Staffing brands, including Bartech, Corestaff, Guidant Group NA, S.com and SRG Woolf.

"I am honored to be recognized among the leaders of an industry that is breaking new ground every day to transform the workforce. I am part of a team that works tirelessly to deliver our clients innovative solutions that help them achieve their own business goals," said Barfield.

Making his first appearance on the Staffing 100 list, Bixler is a respected leader who consistently identifies new ways to enable business growth, drive cost savings and creatively solve the technology challenges faced by customers and internal teams alike. With a deep understanding of the business, Bixler plays a key role in servicing many of Impellam's largest accounts.

Bixler said, "I have long admired the industry leaders who comprise the Staffing 100, and to be counted among them is a distinct honor. I am thankful for the opportunity to lead Impellam in leveraging technology innovation to move the industry forward and create competitive advantage for our clients."
